Construction Partners Announces Acquisition of The Scruggs Company, Serving the Georgia Market

CPI's 16th Acquisition Since its Founding

DOTHAN, AL, May 17, 2018 – Construction Partners, Inc. (Nasdaq: ROAD) (CPI), specializing in the construction and maintenance of roadways across five southeastern states, today announced it has completed the acquisition of The Scruggs Company, a privately-owned civil infrastructure company headquartered in Hahira, GA, for $51.1 million in cash, excluding certain working capital adjustments.

Founded in 1964, The Scruggs Company is a leading provider of roadbuilding and sitework services to government and commercial customers in southern Georgia. The Scruggs Company operates three hot mix asphalt plants, three aggregate mines and one industrial plant.

The “platform” acquisition represents CPI’s 16th acquisition since its founding. The Scruggs Company will complement CPI’s existing Southeastern U.S. road construction and maintenance operations and provide new bidding areas in the expanding Georgia market.

“We are very pleased to welcome The Scruggs Company, led by company President Ferrell Scruggs, Jr., to the CPI organization. The acquisition of The Scruggs Company is a strong strategic fit with Construction Partners’ portfolio of companies and furthers our strategy of creating value for our shareholders through controlled, profitable growth,” said Charles Owens, CPI President and Chief Executive Officer.

“Scruggs’ experienced and successful management team and operations personnel will be strong additions to our organization, and we look forward to fully integrating its more than 200 employees and operations in the coming months,” Mr. Owens said.

“We believe this acquisition furthers our goal to expand our vertically integrated operations in the high-growth Southeastern U.S., and that it will be immediately accretive to earnings per share,” said Ned Fleming, CPI Chairman. “We look forward to building on Scruggs’ strong reputation and growing its business through greenfield developments and bolt-on acquisitions.”

CPI funded the transaction using $29.1 million in cash and $22 million drawn on its credit facility.

The Scruggs Company is expected to contribute revenue of approximately $65 to $75 million over the next twelve months.
